

Mt. Horeb Lutheran Church

19TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
OCTOBER 19, 2025

Welcome to Mt. Horeb Lutheran Church! We greet one another as sisters and brothers in Christ and welcome all who are visiting. We are delighted that you are here to worship and encourage you to sign our guest book in the entry hall. Please fill out a visitor's card in the pew holders and place it in the offertory plate. HOLY COMMUNION is open to all who confess their faith in Jesus and acknowledge Him to be Lord. Those unable to partake of wine are assured that the Church affirms our Lord's presence in, with, and under the bread alone.

THE GATHERING

We begin worship confessing that we fall short of who God created us to be, and we ask God to forgive us.

We pray for God's patience as we remember our baptism by making the sign of the cross.

THE WORD

We hear the word of God's promise in Scripture and in preaching. This includes the readings, the sermon, hymns and the Apostles' creed, prayers of intercession and the passing of the peace of Christ. "We will recount to generations to come the power of the Lord (Ps. 78:4)."

FIRST READING: GENESIS 32:22-31

Returning to the home he had fled many years before after stealing his brother's birthright and his father's blessing, Jacob wrestles all night long with a divine adversary who ultimately blesses him and changes his name to "Israel," a name that means "he wrestles with God."

²² The same night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. ²³ He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. ²⁴ Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. ²⁵ When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket, and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. ²⁶ Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." ²⁷ So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." ²⁸ Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans and have prevailed." ²⁹ Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. ³⁰ So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, yet my life is preserved." ³¹ The sun rose upon him as he passed Peniel, limping because of his hip.

L The Word of the Lord.

C Thanks Be to God!

PSALM 121 [spoken responsively]

¹ I lift up my eyes | to the hills; from where is my | help to come?

² My help comes | from the LORD, the maker of heav- | en and earth.

³ The LORD will not let your | foot be moved nor will the one who watches over you | fall asleep.

⁴ Behold, the keep- | er of Israel will neither slum- | ber nor sleep;

⁵ the LORD watches | over you; the LORD is your shade at | your right hand;

⁶ the sun will not strike | you by day, nor the | moon by night.

⁷ The LORD will preserve you | from all evil and will | keep your life.

⁸ The LORD will watch over your going out and your | coming in, from this time forth for- | evermore.

SECOND READING: 2 TIMOTHY 3:14—4:5

The writer of this letter continues his instruction of Timothy, his younger colleague in ministry, by emphasizing the importance of faithful teaching despite opposition.

¹⁴ But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it ¹⁵ and how from childhood you have known sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶ All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, ¹⁷ so that the person of God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

^{4:1} In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: ² proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favorable or unfavorable; convince, rebuke, and encourage with the utmost patience in teaching. ³ For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound teaching, but, having their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires ⁴ and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. ⁵ As for you, be sober in everything, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 18:1-8

Pr The Holy Gospel according to Luke, the 18th Chapter.

C Glory to you, O Lord! (spoken boldly)

Jesus tells a parable of an unjust judge who is worn down by a widow's pleas. Jesus is calling God's people to cry out for justice and deliverance. For if an unethical judge will ultimately grant the plea of a persistent widow, how much more will God respond to those who call.

¹ Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. ² He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. ³ In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my accuser.' ⁴ For a while he refused, but later he said to himself, 'Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, ⁵ yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.' " ⁶ And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. ⁷ And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? ⁸ I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

HYMN OF THE DAY: ELW 517: Lord, Keep Us Steadfast in Your Word

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the ✠ resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

After each portion of the prayers:

Pr God of grace,

C receive our prayer.

SHARING OF CHRIST'S PEACE

Pr The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C And also with you. We sit

THE MEAL

In the Word read and proclaimed, God speaks to us the word of Promise. In the Lord's Supper it is a "visible word" of the invisible promise of which our founder Rev. Martin Luther speaks-God feeds us with the promise and presence of Christ Jesus. We begin with our own offerings from what God first gave us to use: money, bread and wine, praise and thanksgiving.

OFFERTORY VOLUNTARY: ELW 805 Lead On, O King Eternal

OFFERTORY SONG: We Give Thee but Thine Own

1. We give thee but thine own, what-e'er the gift may be;—
2. May we thy boun - ties thus as stew-ards true re - ceive, all that we have is thine a - lone, a trust, O Lord, from thee.
and glad - ly, as thou bless-est us, to thee our first - fruits give.

Text: William Walsham How, 1823-1897, alt.

Tune: HEATH, Lowell Mason and George J. Webb, Cantica Lauda, 1850.

OFFERTORY PRAYER

Pr Let us pray.

Merciful God, as grains of wheat scattered upon the hills were gathered together to become one bread, so let your church be gathered together from the ends of the earth into your kingdom, for yours is the glory through Jesus Christ, now and forever.

C Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be__ with you. And al - so__ with you.

Lift__ up your hearts! We lift__ them to__ the Lord!

Let us give____ thanks to__ the Lord our__ God.

It is right____ to give our thanks and praise.____

The musical notation is written on four staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below the notes. The first staff has a double bar line after the first measure. The second staff also has a double bar line after the first measure. The third and fourth staves end with a double bar line.

Pr It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ; who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in__ the high - est.

Bless - ed__ is he who comes in the name of the Lord.____

Ho - san - na in__ the high - est, ho - san - na in__ the high - est.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

Pr You are indeed holy, almighty and merciful God.
You are most holy, and great is the majesty of your glory.

You so loved the world that you gave your only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but have eternal life.

We give you thanks for his coming into the world to fulfill for us your holy will and to accomplish all things for our salvation.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

C Amen.

Pr Lord, remember us in your kingdom, and teach us to pray.

C Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen. We sit

INVITATION TO THE LORD'S TABLE

Pr Come, when you are fearful, to be made new in love.
Come, when you are doubtful, to be made strong in faith.
Come, when you are regretful, and be made whole.
Come, old and young, for there is room for all.

C Amen.

THE SENDING

Our worship comes to a close. We have gathered as a body of believers, received instruction, nourished and commissioned to be Christ's body in service to the world. We are now ready to go and proclaim the good news that has inspired us to authentically love all of God's people as Jesus loves us. We pray that our expressions of love and service reflect who Jesus is in us. We give thanks that we get to come back together to celebrate freely this awesome God who loves us and forgives us, even when we mess up.

Comments from the Cloud of Witnesses

How long must the widow still knock at the door? Along with this wretched Palestinian widow who has lost all her rights and protection, we may see many, many other petitioners coming: the hungry, the tortured, the homeless, the saints of the ages, and all those whose only prayer is their own existence in need. And how long must terrified Jacob wrestle with the angel, begging for blessing? The images are powerful because they mean to gather us in: our own sense of the unconsolated suffering around us cries out with the widow. But the texts are also full of promise. God does answer, more surely than does this self-assured judge. God does give the blessing. Our assembly on Sunday always gathers to remember that final merciful judgment, to hear it spoken in all its strength again, and to encourage each other to live on the grounds of that judgment even when it doesn't appear to be effective in the world. Listen to the letter to Timothy. Continue, abide, dwell in what you have heard in this assembly and in the Scriptures. Hear the mercy of God in this world. —Gordon Lathrop

This week's Gospel Message – Prayerful Perseverance

How should we pray? What should we pray for? We might sometimes treat prayer like putting coins in a divine vending machine, and some rely on the story of the persistent widow to claim that God will indeed shower us with blessing if only we pray "enough." Yet, despite fervent prayer, we don't always get that job, the illness comes anyway, the doubts continue. If we take literally the claims of those who promise prosperity for God's people, the condition of humanity suggests none of us has been persistent enough. Because, after all, life happens to all of us.

In Jesus' parable, the woman is not praying strictly for herself; rather, she is praying for justice. A better word may be "vengeance." The persistent widow is coming to the judge and crying out, "Avenge me! Avenge me against my adversaries!" Her focus is laser-sharp, and she does not give in to distractions. She waits with fervent hope that there will come a day when the judge brings balance, restores what has been lost, and humbles those who have done wrong. The widow is asking for something much larger than her daily needs. She is pleading on behalf of the world.

Like Jacob in Genesis 32, sometimes we wrestle with God, pleading for our own blessing. Our striving can feel overwhelming or even pointless. But Jesus invites us to focus and be persistent, to cry out to him day and night.

Though our prayers are not always answered in the way we want or expect, we can count on God to keep promises. We can count on a day when we are all restored. We can count on a time when God will avenge all of us against the crushing force of death. We can hang our hope on the fact that God receives our persistence with love, patience, and grace.
